“Following Positive Values for True Leadership.”

“The values you choose to follow today, directly impact the leader you are tomorrow.”

Through Chuck Pattishall’s “FollowerShip”, the ideals of leadership and servant-hood, one will learn step by step, the process to these fundamental truths and steps through Chuck’s involved, compassionate and interpersonal focused teachings to help you, “Chart Your Course, Get On Board, Follow Your Dream.”

Chuck’s experience in business spans his years as a district sales manager for a Fortune 500 company hiring, supervising, training and supporting insurance agents and their staff, to owning multi-line insurance agencies. Chuck’s values and leadership were also forged by his experience as a deputy sheriff, Underwater Recovery Team (URT) commander, certified Underwater Homicide Investigator, sniper on a SWAT team and instructor on the High Angle Rescue Team (HART). He was featured on the nationally televised show Search and Rescue on the History Channel. He holds a B.A. in History and World Religions from the University of Tampa and a M.B.A. in International Management from George Fox University. He also holds post-graduate certificates in executive and personal coaching from the College of Executive Coaching and is a Certified Master Life Coach.

Chart Your Course: Where do you want to go? You need to have a destination in mind and use your maps and charts to learn the ways of the ocean. It’s all in learning who you are in order to lead others.

Get On Board: How are you going to get there? It’s all about how you outfit your ship and about what you need for the trip and leaving behind the things you don’t. Here you gather the tools to make you a more effective leader. Your dream is even closer now.

Follow Your Dream: What are you going to do to get there? You have destined where you want your ship to go. You have everything mapped out, you have the ship ready, but you must now become a tactician of your course. Your ship is underway, and you need to now be focused on how you are going to get there. You’re going to have to incorporate the necessary elements that will get you to your destination. It is about action now!

Are YOU becoming the true leader in your life that you know you were meant to be?

“The values you choose to follow today, directly impact the leader you are tomorrow.”
